

Merged Pilot Projects

Name of Pilot Project(s) and State	Successor Project	Date of FCC Order Approving Merger
Juniata Valley Network and Pennsylvania Mountains Healthcare Alliance (Pennsylvania)	Pennsylvania Mountains Healthcare Alliance	August 12, 2009
North Carolina TeleHealth Network, Albemarle Health, Western Carolina University and University Health Systems of Eastern Carolina (North Carolina)	North Carolina TeleHealth Network	July 31, 2009
Texas Healthcare Network, Texas Health Information Network Collaborative (Texas)	Texas Health Information Network Collaborative	April 16, 2009
Holzer Consolidated Health Systems, Southern Ohio Health Care Network (Ohio)	Southern Ohio Health Care Network	December 5, 2008
As One Together for Health, University of Mississippi Medical Center (Mississippi)	University of Mississippi Medical Center	December 5, 2008

Withdrawn Pilot Projects

Name of Pilot Project(s)	Reason for Withdrawal	Date of Withdrawal
Alabama Pediatric Health Access Network	Lack of participation from rural hospitals in state.	Letter to USAC dated February 16, 2011
Rural Healthcare Consortium of Alabama	Financial difficulties and lack of interest from member hospitals.	Letter to USAC dated March 18, 2011
Kansas University Medical Center (Kan-ed)	Could not meet the competitive bidding requirements of the RHCPP.	Letter to USAC dated April 30, 2010
Health Care Research and Education Network (North Dakota)	Financial difficulties in obtaining the required 15% contribution.	USAC notified on August 30, 2011

Pilot Projects Not Meeting June 30, 2011 Deadline

Name of Pilot Project	Reason for Not Making Deadline
Big Bend Regional Health Care Information Organization (Florida)	Another network in region under construction using funding obtained through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. Region could not sustain two networks.
Mountain States Health Alliance (Tennessee and Virginia)	Found alternate sources of funding.
Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center (Pennsylvania)	Project stated to USAC its intent to use Pilot Program funding for ineligible personnel costs. Project could not restructure its proposal in a manner that attracted interest from HCPs.
DCH Health System (Alabama) Association of Washington Public Hospital Districts (Washington) University of Mississippi Medical Center Puerto Rico Health Department Tohono O'odham Nation Department of Information Technology (Arizona)	Projects did not proceed with the program requirements on a timely basis.